- set out roles and responsibilities of the placement team members and the faculty team.
- outline and define the student readiness efforts for placement.
- achieve placement of the maximum number of students.
- ensure high-quality placements in terms of numbers, pay packages on offer and goodwill/ brand of the recruiters visiting the institute.
- define a point-based disciplinary system to ensure adherence to the rules and regulations as specified in the policy.

3. Scope of the Policy

This policy applies to all students who opt for the institute's placement assistance and includes details on:

- student registration and CV updating schedule for placement assistance.
- processes related to inviting recruiters on campus.
- processes related to facilitation of interaction between students and recruiters
- processes related to student readiness.
- rules and regulations for students throughout the process and behavioral exceptions that are unpardonable and may lead to disciplinary action This policy does not apply to:
- work experiences/ projects/ industrial exposures outside or beyond the approved course curriculum.
- off-campus placements and internships

This policy applies to the streams of MBA Core, MBA in Healthcare Management (still under review) and Executive MBA (still under review).

CONFIDENTIAL

4. Responsibilities of the PDP team

The PDP department strives to ensure a smooth transition for students from their academic to corporate endeavors through its corporate outreach and student readiness arms supported by the student Placement committee members and the faculty team.

This policy sets out the broad roles of the PDP department, the student placement committee members, the faculty team, and the students seeking placement assistance from the PDP department. 5 Placement Process

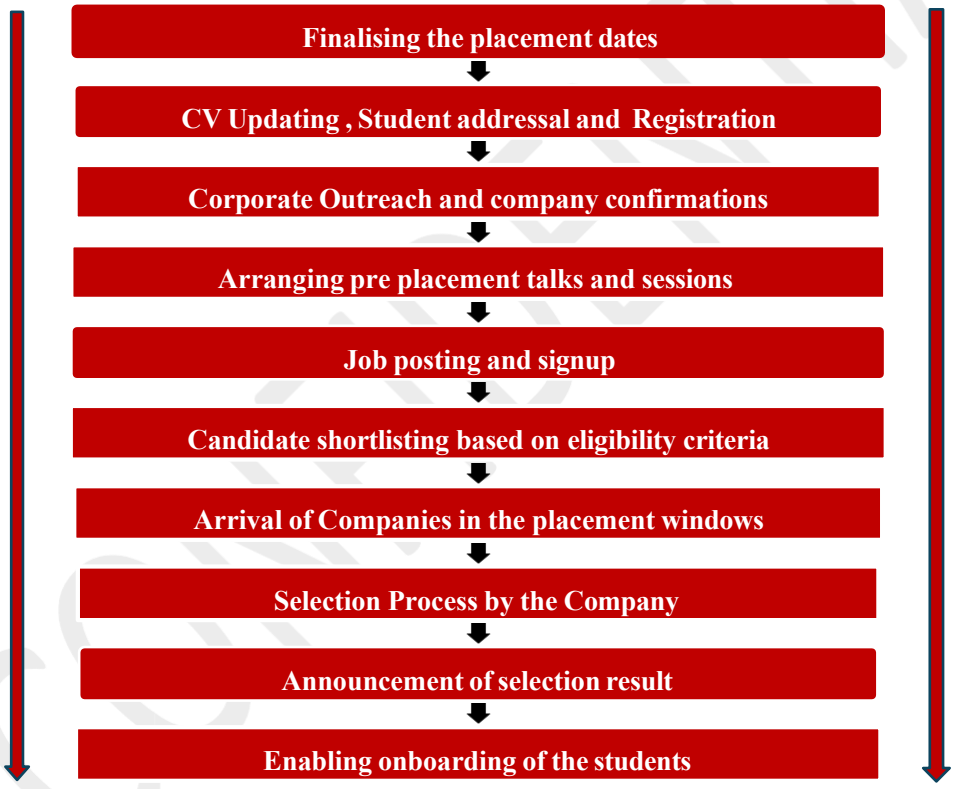
The placement process for an academic batch will begin in June every year and will be guided by the placement window dates. The primary mode of dissemination of information for all placement-related activities will be via notifications from the superset system or through the following mail IDs:

pdp.office@somaiya.edu

pdp.department@somaiya.edu

placements.simsr@somaiya.edu

The process flow, for a typical placement cycle, will be as under:



5.1 Eligibility Criteria for Final Placements

1) Compulsory attendance for online GD session organised by PDP on 26th-27th April and achieving minimum 60% in the GD
2) Attending the in-person feedback on GD session in July
3) Getting minimum 70% in SIP which will be evaluated by faculty mentor
4) No active backlogs (Absence due to medical reasons will not be counted as a backlog)
5) Have attended Professor Nikhil's mandatory session - "Tell me something about yourself"

6) Have attempted mock PI sessions by AI tool Languify during summers and achieve minimum 70% score

- ✓ Students to clear any 4 out of 6 to be eligible to sit for final placements
- ✓ Students who fail to qualify will have to undergo Mandatory readiness sessions and post clearance by PDP may be allowed to sit for Final placements.

5.2 Placement dates finalization

The PDP department will, in coordination with the administration team, finalize the dates of placement process for the batch to invite the recruiting companies.

5.3 CV Updating in software

5.3.1 The PDP department will instruct all students to update their profile in the placement software and substantiate the inputs in the CV with adequate proof for verification.

5.3.2 The PDP team may keep an eye out for any unclear, inaccurate, deceptive, or fraudulent information in the previous academic achievements as provided by the students during the placement process. If any student is found engaging in any dishonest activities, please refer to rule no. 14 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.

5.3.3 The onus of proving the genuineness of the additional certifications, as recorded in the CV, to the recruiting companies lies with the student.

5.3.4 The CVs for the placement process will be accessed from the system as and when required for a process.

5.3.5 For CV updating, a 10-day window before the placement week will be open for the students allowing them to update their certifications. In case of special requests by students, the CV update window for select fields may be opened periodically under the instructions of the PDP department

Below is the tentative schedule for CV updating:

For 2nd year students –

CV Cycle/ Updation	Month
First	July
Second	November
Third	January

For 1st year students –

CV Cycle/ Updation	Month
First	August
Second	November

CONFIDENTIAL

Third	January

5.4 Student Batch Address

A batch address for students will be planned by the PDP team during Induction as well as in the month of July before placement season begins to inform them about the placement process, rules and regulations of the process, etc.

5.5 Student Registration

5.5.1 Students must register according to the specified schedule/ deadline if they want to be considered for the placement session and avail of the PDP department's support in finding a job or internship. The registration window opens in July.

5.5.2 Registration is mandatory if a student wants to take part in the placement process, Additionally, the students are free to withdraw from the process between 2 companies coming (not in between an ongoing process) at any point of time.

5.5.3 A student will not be permitted to take part in the on-campus placement drives if they do not register at the start of the session.

5.6 Corporate Outreach and Company Confirmations

5.6.1 The PDP department is committed to supporting the students to secure placements. It will strive to invite and host as many recruiting companies to the institute as possible.

5.6.2 The PDP department will maintain and update regularly, the list of recruiter companies who visit the institute for their recruitment drive. It will endeavor to add on reputed recruiters to the list year-on-year and sift out recruiters that do not match up to the institute and student expectations.

5.6.3 The PDP team will start reaching out to recruiter companies from May onwards.

5.6.4 Interested companies will be told to express their interest via mail and provide a brief job profile or the Job description (JD) in the format provided by the PDP team detailing the profile of the jobs being offered, remuneration packages and eligibility requirements for the students. Multiple JDs for different positions from a single company will also be accepted by the PDP team.

5.6.5 The company will be asked to confirm their selection process before a desired date or time slot is offered to them. In case the company fails to do so, the allotted slot will be offered to other companies based on requests received. Request for any change in the slot will be entertained subject to its availability.

5.6.6 The preference for allotment of slots/ dates to the companies will be based on the following criteria:

- Number of positions/ vacancies offered
- Remuneration package offered
- Number of branches covered
- Participation in placements in the previous year/s and the experience associated
- Number of students selected in the previous year(s)

CONFIDENTIAL

5.6.7 The PDP team will make available the information/resumes of the interested students based on eligibility criteria and the JD, for the company to shortlist them before the beginning of the placement process. The PDP team will strive to seek the criteria for shortlisting students for the further process by the recruiting company, to keep the students informed of the same.

5.7 Preplacement talks/Leadership session/Guest sessions by the Senior Leadership team of a recruiting company

5.8 There would be various Guest Sessions and Leadership Talks which would be conducted throughout the academic year. The sessions will be organized by the PDP Department and the institute together. These sessions can be general or based on specializations. The students are required to attend the Pre-placement Talk (PPT) based on their specializations and their interest in the company/ job profiles being offered. PPTs are held on Campus or in virtual mode where the companies make presentations about their organization's culture, career growth path, job profiles, etc.

5.9 All the pre placement sessions/ leadership session/Guest sessions would be mandatory for all the students to attend.

5.10 The date, time and venue of the PPT will be conveyed at the earliest time possible. However, at times, the company may send confirmation late at night, which is immediately communicated to students through an email or any other standard mode of communication. Hence, it is the responsibility of students to remain connected and await such communication from time to time.

5.11 In case a student is not able to attend the PPT due to an overlapping selection process being conducted simultaneously, he/she will be allowed to appear for the selection process without attending the PPT. This is subject to the feasibility of rescheduling and at the discretion of the visiting company and the PDP Department.

5.12 Job Posting and Sign-up

5.12.1 Once the PDP team has received the JD from the interested company, the same will be uploaded to the placement software and a notification sent to students.

5.12.2 Students are advised to go through the details of the company/ job profiles/ packages/ eligibility criteria before signing up in the system. If the Placement Software is under maintenance, email remains the mode of communication.

5.12.3 Interested students should sign in personally as per the instructions given by the PDP team. No proxy is permitted.

5.12.4 It is in the interest of students to check about the company's business domain and other details before making an informed choice to apply for the position. Students are responsible for collecting general information about the recruiter, the relevant job profiles being offered and industry details through public information sources. Also, it is the responsibility of the student to read carefully the company profile, job description, location and compensation details provided in the sign-up communication/ email.

5.12.5 Students who wish to take part in the placement drive by a specific recruiting company in response to the announcement made by the PDP team must register for it within the allotted time. (This registration is in addition to the one that is made before the placement season and is specific to the company the student wishes to apply for.)

5.12.6 Students who do not register for a specific company's placement drive will not be considered for that company at a later stage.

5.12.7 In case the company seeks a candidate for a PAN India location, students are required to make a well-thought-out decision of whether to apply for the same or not. However, if the student, being eligible for the position, fails to apply due to location constraints, this will be considered as one missed opportunity (refer table at 5.7.9).

5.12.8 Through the entire placement cycle, students are allowed to miss signing up for eligible companies only as per the limits prescribed in the table below:

5.12.9 Once the number of missed sign-ups exceeds the specified upper limit, the student will not be provided with any further placement assistance/ support.

Specializations	Limit of Missed Companies/ Sign-ups
Marketing	15 eligible companies
Finance	15 eligible companies
HR	5 eligible companies
Operations	5 eligible companies
DSA	5 eligible companies
HCM	3 eligible companies
Exec	As per specialization

- For MBA-HCM students missing any eligible company will be counted as a missed sign-up irrespective of their minors.

5.12.10 To ensure fair distribution of placement opportunities, the number of attempts permitted per student is capped. An attempt is counted only when the student progresses beyond the application stage, i.e., when:

- The student is shortlisted for the next round in the company process.
- In cases where all students are moved ahead by default (e.g., all pass in Round 1), then the attempt will only be counted if the student clears the subsequent round.
- For MBA-HCM students any eligible opportunity will be counted as an attempt irrespective of their minors

CONFIDENTIAL

Specialization	Maximum Attempts Allowed
Marketing	17
Finance	17
Operations	10
Human Resources (HR)	10
Business Analytics & Data Science (BADS)	10

5.13 Selection Process by the Company

5.13.1 The selection process is at the discretion of the company and the PDP department will have no say in the process of the company. The process may comprise of but is not limited to, a Pre-Placement Talk (PPT)/ Written Test/ Online Test/ Group Discussion/ Personal Interview in the online/offline mode.

5.13.2 The PDP department will take the selection process details from the recruiting company well in advance for its smooth conduct and will share the information with students for both placements. However, the PDP team cannot assure the students that the information will be received during reasonable working hours. In some cases, the information or schedule of a placement process is received from the recruiters even at late hours. The onus, therefore, is on the student to remain connected and follow his/her Placement Software/ e- mail IDs/ Google groups and other standard modes of communication.

5.13.3 Non-participation in any stage of the selection process by the student in the signed-up companies will lead to the student being debarred from the entire process and this will also be considered as one missed opportunity (refer table at 5.7.9).

5.13.4 The PDP team will facilitate the entire selection process by providing the infrastructure and support needed by the employers in their process, including notifying students and setting up interview rooms. The companies will be given reasonable assistance in conducting the tests by the PDP team.

5.13.5 In case of online processes, students are expected to be available with their laptops, with cameras kept on and have proper internet connectivity to take part in these processes. In cases where students are found not adhering to the above, please refer to the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.All the online process during the placement cycle will be only conducted in the campus in the presence of PDP team members and student pcom team. For any last moment changes the shortlisted students will be informed accordingly

5.13.6 The PDP team will seek the shortlist of students for interviews (based on student profiles and/or test performances) with reasonable time provision and inform the short-listed students about the interview schedule once it is finalized.

5.13.7 The PDP department has no role to play and will in no way influence the recruiting company's process. It is the prerogative of a recruiting company to accept/select a student's candidature depending on the candidate's performance and job and candidate prerequisites.

5.13.8 The participating companies are expected to adhere to their commitments relating to packages, profiles, location, and other such details as shared in the job profile or during the selection process. Any variance in the final offer will be taken up by the PDP department with the recruiting company and a further course of action decided.

5.14 Announcement of Result

5.14.1 The final selection of the students for placement by the recruiting company will be made only from among the interviewed candidates.

5.14.2 The PDP dept will seek a list of the finally selected students at the end of the day/ slot itself. In case further rounds of interviews are required to be held, either on the campus or at their office, the PDP team will seek the details, either immediately or subsequently by mail, to plan for the same.

5.14.3 It is to be ensured that the list of selected/short-listed students duly signed by the responsible authority be received by the PDP department either physically or be sent to the Placement mail ID of the institute from an official/ company email ID.

5.14.4 The PDP department should inform the companies about not making any 'on-the-spot' offers directly to the students, nor should students be given any indication of the selection during or immediately after the selection process.

5.14.5 If a candidate is appearing for multiple processes at the same time, he/she would have to accept the offer provided first.

5.15 Offer Acceptance

5.15.1 Once the offers are finalized, the company is required to send the offer letters to the PDP department. The PDP team will disseminate the offer letters to the selected students. The selected students will be required to accept the offer by signing the offer letter/acceptance letter in the required format (if provided) and submit the same to the PDP team, which will be forwarded to the concerned company within 24 hours.

5.15.2 In case of a rare situation where the student receives an offer letter from multiple companies whose selection processes have been completed simultaneously and the offer letters are sent within an hour, he/she will have to choose one offer and the final decision of the student will be communicated by the PDP team to the company within 24 hours.

5.15.3 The PDP department will try to seek a waiting list of students in addition to the list of final selections. In case a student opts not to accept the offer, the students next on the waiting list may be confirmed, as per their merit. This waiting list will not be disclosed to the students (by the PDP team or by the company) and will be released on a per-student basis if required.

5.15.4 Students are not allowed to negotiate with the company in terms of job location, role offered, and salary post-offer acceptance. It is only during the interview process if the HR panelists discuss/ or ask the students for details related to their preferred locations and any other information he/ she can discuss with the HR.

5.15.5 Companies may change the joining date, salary, location, or job profile due to economic uncertainties or any other reasons. In such circumstances, students are expected to accept the revised offer.

5.15.6 Students are expected to be in communication with the company they are placed in ONLY through the PDP team and avoid direct contact except during the face-to-face selection process. In case a student indulges in direct contact with the company representatives either by self or through a third person, please refer to rule no. 13 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.

5.15.7 The institute follows a strict policy of one job opportunity for every student. Therefore, once a student receives a job offer, he/she is not allowed to further participate in the placement process (an exception to this is explained in rule 7).

5.16 Offer non-acceptance / rejection by Student

5.16.1 Since students sign up for a company on their own accord, they cannot reject the offer once it has been accepted by them.

5.16.2 In case a student wishes to cancel/revoke the offer acceptance later, they need to communicate the same via mail to the PDP department well in advance. In such a case, the student/s will neither be added back to the placement pool nor will be eligible for further placement support from the PDP team.

5.16.3 In case of revocation of offer acceptance, please refer to rule no. 13 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.

5.17 Revocation of Offer/ Amendment of Offer/ Onboarding delay by the company

5.17.1 After the selection, the organization normally asks selected students to upload their academic and work experience documents on the organization's portal within a specific timeline. If any student fails to follow their instructions or does not upload the documents or in case, the uploaded documents get falsified or not acceptable after background checks/ there is a change in comparison to earlier provided information by the student, then the company might either revoke or amend the placement offer. In such cases, the PDP department is not responsible.

5.17.2 In case a company wishes to revoke the offers given to our students/delay the onboarding process interminably, the PDP dept is required to gather all the information and take a judicious call on blacklisting the company.

5.17.3 In case offers are revoked by the company due to company exigencies, the said students will be added back to the pool for placement assistance.

5.17.4 In case the offers are revoked by the company due to a student misdemeanor, the said student/s will neither be added back to the placement pool, nor will they be eligible for further placement support from the PDP team. In case the offer is amended by the company for specific reasons, either on their part or the student's part, it will be up to the student to take a call on whether to accept the new offer or not. The PDP team will only enable the student to get a new offer, if possible.

5.17.5 In case of an onboarding process delay, the PDP team will keep a close watch and follow up with the company on a timely basis.

CONFIDENTIAL

6. Pre-Placement Offer/Pre-Placement interview

Over the years, companies that are satisfied with the performance of the students during their summer placements may consider offering a pre-placement offer (PPO) to such students who they feel may fit in with their organizational requirements. A student who has met all the academic and professional requirements is eligible to be considered for a PPO by the concerned organization. Such pre-placement offers are sent by email to the concerned students / PDP Department. The PDP Department informs the concerned students about the pre-placement offered by the company.

The rules regarding PPO acceptance and administration are as follows:

a) PPO for Students with Work Experience of 0 - 23 months:
Should accept a PPO greater than or equal to Rs.10,00,000/- CTC (Cost to the Company).

b) PPO for Students with Work Experience greater than or equal to 24 months:
Experienced students of all programs should accept an offer equal to or greater than Rs.11,00,000/-

c) Deadline for PPO Acceptance:
Once the student receives the offer letter from the company or PDP department, from that point on they have 24 hours to communicate their answer for the same. The acceptance or rejection of the offer must be communicated in writing to the Professional Development and Placements (PDP) Department. In case a student fails to inform the PDP Department within 24 hours of receiving the offer intimation, it would be considered that the student has accepted the PPO, and his candidature will be deleted from further placement rounds.

d) Consequences of PPO rejection:
If any student rejects the PPO/ PPI, then no further placement support will be provided from the Institute. In case a student directly writes to a company or tries to influence the acceptance/ rejection of PPO, this will be considered a breach of protocol, and no further Placement Support will be offered. Please refer to rule no. 13 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable. The PDP Department will try to ensure that all companies desiring to make a PPO offer do the same before September end. However, any PPO offer after September can be considered if the student is not placed on the day of the offer.

e) Pre-Placement Interview-Terms and Conditions:
Some companies allow the identified students to appear for a Pre-Placement Interview (PPI) rather than directly offering a PPO. In such cases attending a Pre-Placement Interview (PPI) is mandatory. Any student rejecting a PPI will not be allowed to appear for any further placement process. In case of a conversion of PPI to a PPO (final job offer), the PPO policy would be applicable.

CONFIDENTIAL

f) Lapse of PPO / PPI:

Once the offer is accepted, the student will be kept out of the placement pool and will not be allowed to participate in the further Placement Process of the institute. If a PPO/PPI candidate gets selected by any other company before the scheduling of the PPI interview or announcement of the PPO, the opportunity will automatically lapse.

g) Withholding information from the PDP Department:
Students getting PPO/ PPI (Pre-Placement Interview) offers directly from the companies are required to convey the same to the PDP Department through either a formal letter or mail. Students found to be deliberately withholding information related to PPO/PPI offers will not be supported for further placement process by the PDP Department. Please refer to rule no. 13 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.

7. High Paying Company Placement opportunity

A student cannot continue in the placement process after accepting a job offer from any recruiting company. A student who has been selected by the company on CTC (package X), may, nevertheless, be permitted to take part in the selection process of only one additional company of his / her choice that is offering a higher CTC greater/equal to 5 LPA compared to the offer which he/ she has already secured.

This rule is not applicable for the summer placements. Any variations will be handled on a case-tocase basis.

8. Summer Placements/ Internships

Summer placements, also called as summer internships are an essential component of professional education and give aspiring professionals much-needed exposure to the application of principles they study inside the institute's walls.

As a part of the course curriculum, it is planned that MBA students will complete a 6-to-8-week summer internship at the conclusion of their second semester. The PDP department will invite recruiting companies to provide internships to students. The process of choosing candidates will be the same as that for placements and all other placement-associated rules are applicable here too.

Students opting for an internship on their own must convey to the PDP Department And they will be required to fill out the Institute Opt-out form. In case a student chooses to change the internship company on their own during the interview process or after getting placed through the campus placement efforts, he/she will be penalized for the same. They will also be temporary restricted from participating in the final placements. and will be added back to the placement pool only after 50% of the specialization batch is placed.

In case of termination of the internship by the company due to poor performance/ absenteeism/ misconduct etc., the student will face penalty. Please refer to rule no. 13 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable and the PDP department will not be bound to provide support for another summer placement.

CONFIDENTIAL

9. Dress Code for Company interactions

During the entire placement season, students appearing for a company process should wear the formals approved by the Institute for all selection processes, unless the recruiter has any specific requirements.

- Only a plain white / sky blue color shirt, college blazer and tie as per the institute's approved formals are permitted.
- For boys, only black color formal shoes are permitted.
- For girls, black color flats or low heels, closed-toed shoes are permitted.
- Dark/light brown or any other color shoes are not allowed.
- No loafers, sports shoes, sandals etc. are allowed during the interview process.
- Only quarter or mid-calf black color socks are permitted. Anklets or other colors or low-cut socks are not allowed.

Students violating any of the dress codes mentioned above will be penalized. Please refer to rule no. 14 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.

10. Code of Conduct

Every student must adhere to the highest standards of professional conduct in their behavior, during the placement process, ensuring that all their acts:

- Meet high ethical standards.
- Are in adherence to the rules and regulations as specified in the placement policy
- comply with the appropriate behavioral norms when around peers, PDP team members, recruiters and faculty team.
- Do not deviate from the values adopted by the institute.
- Do not harm the institute's, PDP department's, or company's reputation.
- Do not adversely affect the likelihood of selection of other students.

Misbehavior with the PDP team members will warrant strict disciplinary action against such students. Please refer to rule no. 14 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.

In case after investigation, it is found that students have fabricated or falsified allegations against student placement committee members, they will be kept out of the placement process and no further placement support from the PDP Department will be provided. Students found violating this rule will have to voluntarily fill the opt-out

Any departures from appropriate behaviors as specified above will be considered as a breach of the student code of conduct. Please refer to rule no. 14 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.

CONFIDENTIAL

11. Professional Development Trainings

The Professional Development arm of the PDP department will organize soft skills training sessions, Guest Lectures, Workshops, Mock GDs and PIs, experiential meets with alumni, etc. to help students get industry-ready.

Throughout the entire placement process, the individual performances of the students in Group Discussion and Personal Interview rounds will be tracked and recorded for training purposes. If the students are not able to clear GD or PI rounds after multiple attempts, it is required that they once again undergo training sessions as advised by the Professional Development team of the PDP dept.

The training sessions would be mandatory/application based for the students. Failing to attend the mandatory session/ or session after applying for the same will lead to penalties. Please refer to rule no. 14 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.

Criteria/ Conditions for Re-training:

- If any student is not able to clear 10 Personal Interview rounds.
- The Marketing and Finance students, if not able to clear 15 Group Discussion rounds.
- Students from all other specializations, if not able to clear 7 Group Discussion rounds.

During re-training sessions, students will be allowed to participate in any ongoing placement process if it is happening during the same time so that they do not miss any of those placement opportunities.

12. General guidelines and Important points

a) All students seeking placement opportunities through the campus placement process must abide by the rules laid down by the PDP Department.
b) Participation in and selection by the recruiting companies in the final placement process is subject to clearance of all active backlogs. If any student has academic backlogs (ATKT) there are chances that the company may not shortlist the candidate or may revoke their job offers after the selection. It is recommended that the students do not gather any backlogs. In case the offer is revoked for the said reason, the institute or PDP department will not be responsible.
c) All issues related to examination results and marksheets need to be discussed with the Exam department and not the PDP department. The PDP department has no role to play in the timing and distribution of the mark sheets, exam timetables, convocation dates etc.
d) The PDP department will confirm the correctness of the email IDs and their mobile numbers of students with the entire batch to ensure that all get timely communications. It is for students to doubly ensure that they furnish the correct e-mail IDs and their mobile numbers. The student is expected to provide authentic information to the company which is backed up by proper documents. If any student is found furnishing fabricated information, such student is subject to disciplinary action including rustication from the Institute / withholding their reference checks/ invitation to the Convocation. Students should be aware that companies do verification checks on academics, their previous employment history, and their social media profiles. Hence, it is in the best interests of the students to provide authentic information to the companies and not to indulge in anti-social behavior at the Institute / on social media.

e) Plagiarism is discouraged and it is expected that students will refrain from it while giving online tests.
f) Absenteeism on the Selection process days or deliberate under-performance in the selection tests at any stage is strongly discouraged. In cases where the PDP department can gather information on these actions being deliberate, the student may be barred from the placement process. Please refer to rule no. 13 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.
g) Timeliness for all placement processes is highly appreciated. Non-punctual students will be penalized. Please refer to rule no. 13 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.
h) At any stage of the Placement process, if any malpractice is detected, the Institute reserves the right to take disciplinary action against the student and inform the concerned company.
i) The PDP department endeavors to assist students to get placed; however, there may be certain occasions when recruiters may not visit our campus in a particular year. This does not give a right to any student to lash out on social media by bad-mouthing the Institute, the PDP department or its staff members. If any student is found indulging in social media manipulations, such student will be subject to disciplinary action by the Institute, including rustication (the social media policy of the Institute would apply).
j) The social media policy of the institute is available at: https://simsr.s3.ap-south-1.amazonaws.com/Download/SocialMediaGuidelines.pdf
k) The PDP department has an open-door policy. If students have any issues with their placement opportunities, they can directly approach the PDP Department or send an email. Anonymous emails will not be entertained under any circumstances. Anonymous emails with defamatory/malicious content will be handed over to the Disciplinary Committee / IT department/ Cyber Police Cell for further suitable procedures.
l) Once a student receives the offer letter from the company (final placements and SIP) the same should be signed and emailed to pdp.office@somaiya.edu within 5 days of receipt. Failure to do so will result in further course of action (Please refer to rule no. 14 for the list of Disciplinary actions applicable.)
m) For all purposes, the placement cycle for an academic year closes on 31st March

13.1 Lakshya Index

Objective The Lakshya Index has been instituted as a structured mechanism to promote and uphold the values of professionalism, discipline, and preparedness expected from every student participating in the Summer Internship and Final Placement processes. The index aims to quantify and track each student's conduct and placement readiness using a transparent, point-based approach. The objective is to foster responsible engagement, ensure fairness across opportunities, and drive continuous self-improvement among students.

13.1.1 Starting Score and Deductions

Each student will commence their placement journey with a Lakshya Index score of 100. Deductions from this score shall occur based on the student's adherence to professional and behavioral standards laid down by the institute. Misconducts are classified under three categories (The listed misconducts are mere examples and not exhaustive in nature):

A. Critical Misconduct (F3) (Out of Placement Pool till 80% of the batch is placed)

Definition:

Severe violations that compromise institutional credibility, disrupt company engagement, or exhibit unethical behavior during critical stages of placement. These are considered highly unprofessional and non-negotiable in nature.

Implication: Students involved in F3 misconducts will be excluded from the placement pool until 80% of the batch is placed, in addition to a potential permanent mark on their placement record. Some of the examples may include:

- Any misconduct with HR or company personnel and a formal complaint raised by the recruiter during any placement-related engagement (including the Placement Process, Pre- Placement Talk, or a session organized by the PDP team).
- Deliberately expressing disinterest in the role applied for during any stage of the selection process, as reported formally by the company HR.
- Not reporting on the first day of joining and failing to inform the PDP team and/or the recruiter or joining and quitting on the same day.
- Refusing an internship or withdrawing midway due to personal reasons after securing it through campus placement.
- If an international company is presenting and the HR explicitly states that uninterested students may leave, any student who chooses to exit the session at that point will be deemed non-compliant and will be removed from the placement pool.

B. Major Misconducts (F2) (–10 Points)

Definition:

Significant breaches of conduct that directly impact the reputation of the institution, affect corporate relations, or show a disregard for the integrity of the placement process

CONFIDENTIAL

Implication: Each instance classified under F2 results in a deduction of 10 points from the Lakshya Index score.

These are some of the instances which will result in a deduction of 10 points from the Lakshya Index:

- Refusing to sit for the process after voluntarily signing up (excluding auto-signups).
- Refusing a job offer or requesting changes in the offer within 25 days of the joining date, and directly communicating this to the recruiter without involving the PDP team.
- Initiating direct communication with the recruiter for changes in joining details without consulting the PDP team.
- Exhibiting poor performance, absenteeism, or any form of misconduct during the internship, leading to formal complaints or termination by the recruiter.

C. Minor Misconducts (F1) (–5 Points)

Definition:
Minor deviations from expected standards of professionalism and discipline that, while not severely disruptive, reflect a lack of seriousness or preparedness in the placement process.

Implication: Each instance classified under F1 results in a deduction of 5 points from the Lakshya Index score.

These are some of the examples which will attract a deduction of 5 points:

- Missing mandatory placement readiness sessions without prior approval.
- Failing to adhere to the institute's dress code during any interaction with a recruiter.
- Delayed submission of forms, resumes, or any required documentation.
- Ignoring or delaying responses to official communication from the PDP team.
- Not attending sessions for which a confirmation was already given.

All deductions will be based on documented evidence and verified by the PDP department.
